To cast your vote, please check the box preceding each nominee.

Chairman: Dr. Gilbert Bogner

Gil Bogner received his B.A. in History from Ohio State University in 1986, his M.A. in Ancient and Medieval History from Ohio University in 1989, and his Ph.D. in Medieval History from Ohio University in 1997. His research interests lie in fifteenth-century England with emphases on military history, knighthood, and the gentry class. Gil is an Associate Professor of History at Saint Vincent College in Latrobe, PA, where he has been teaching since 1998. He has been a member of the American Branch for the last twenty years.

Vice Chair: Susan Troxell

Susan has been our Research Librarian and has maintained the non-fiction library since 2015. Her background is in law, having passed the bars of Illinois, Pennsylvania, and New Jersey, and was a practicing trial and litigation lawyer for 20 years. She currently sits on two other non-profit boards of directors, both in the area of dance education in public schools. She has written many articles for the Ricardian Bulletin and Ricardian Register, and gave talks at the 2016 and 2018 GMMs. Fortunately for the American Branch, Susan will retain her position as Research Librarian.

Membership Chair: Buffy Martin-Tarbox

Buffy Martin Tarbox is the epitome of an Anglophile and has traveled to Great Britain twenty-one times. Her nationality is American, but she is of Scottish and English descent. She was named after the folk singer Buffy Sainte-Marie. Buffy earned a Bachelor of Arts degree in Art History from the University of Nevada, Reno and currently studies Medieval History at the University of Cambridge through their Institute of Continuing Education program. Her professional life has mostly been in the non-profit sector revolving around communications, advocacy and media relations. She serves as the Communications Manager for an animal shelter in the San Francisco Bay Area. Her hobbies include traveling, reading, photography and volunteering for causes she cares about. Buffy lives in San Francisco, CA with her husband and their cat.

Treasurer: Deborah Kaback

Deborah Kaback lives in New Lebanon, New York. She is a securities lawyer at a financial services firm, and has been working as a lawyer for over 25 years. An avid mystery reader, Deborah also enjoys the theater, dance and gardening. She has been a member of the Society since 2013.

Secretary: Jean Acquino

While Jean Acquino's career and background has been in healthcare administration and consulting, she also served in a variety of volunteer roles from "exchequer" in the Society for Creative Anachronism to vice-president of the Montana Mohair Producers. Additionally, she owned a successful business in San Diego, assisted in medical software design, and website design. She is a certified sheep shearer and currently semi-retired on a small rural farm in the mountains of Montana. (Actually, since COVID, her retirement efforts have been somewhat thwarted.) Jean's lifelong passion has always been history. She was inspired by her father, who collected a vast personal library of history books and encouraged her to read them as soon as she was old enough to string a sentence together.
